Cousin Betty has created a beautiful ice sculpture of a reindeer for the Christmas competition, but her rival, Churlish Karen, has locked it inside a room and turned on the heater. She has given Cousin Betty one hour to solve a series of puzzles and find the clues to unlock the door, or the reindeer will melt completely. Betty calls you in a panic, and you rush to the competition hall to help her. Time is running out, and you must act quickly to save the reindeer and secure Betty's victory.

You look around and find an envelope. You open it and there are some puzzle pieces inside it. Is this the first clue?
